

Today we did a mockup of the site on paper and decided on which people will develop which pages for the site itself:

1. Mason will create the project page template
2. John will create the search page (visual concept)
3. Andrew will create descriptions for each project and create a collection of the project ideas
4. Ben will create the account creation/login pages
5. Jarod will create the landing page and header template